LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

Welcome to Barcelona, welcome to the Residence La Salle Bonanova.

In this dossier you will find information about the Residence, as part of the educational complex of La Salle Bonanova, to which all residents have to adapt and become role models for children attending the school.

We want you to consider the Residence La Salle Bonanova (RLSB) as your home in Barcelona.

In charge of the residence is the Trustees team who work 24/7 to attend and resolve any concerns or suggestions you may have. Trust and communication are key elements in creating a family atmosphere, with respect for privacy, at its core.

We want you to know that any queries, incidents or concerns, can be addressed to a member of the Trustees' team.

Enjoy Barcelona with us. Enjoy your stay in the Residence, and good luck with your academic endeavors.

On behalf of the Management and the Trustees, welcome to #RLSB25-26.

LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

OBJECTIVES

We want the stay of all residents to be productive, and geared to achieving their goals for the 2025/2026 academic year, and that they are in keeping with the objectives of the Residence:

1. Assume a sense of personal responsibility through study and daily communal living.
2. Respect people, material goods, moral and religious beliefs.
3. Create a climate of trust, cooperation, understanding and tolerance.
4. Develop an environment conducive to academic success.
5. Preserve order, and respect for the rules as a means of ensuring goodwill.
6. Participate responsibly in the different activities.

You are the oldest group of students of La Salle Bonanova, therefore, your actions should serve as a positive example for all the other educational levels of the center.

MANAGEMENT AND TRUSTEES OF THE RESIDENCE

The La Salle Bonanova Residence is part of the LA SALLE BONANOVA complex, which is currently directed by Mr. Jordi Gibert.

The TrusteeTeam directly attends to the RLSB and is appointed by the Director of La Salle Bonanova.

The Trustee Team, in direct contact with the Residents, is formed by Mr. Carlos C. Azofra (coordinator), Mr. Ramon Zapater, Mr. Albert Rodríguez, Ms. Lea Didoune, Ms. Jane Innerbrner, Mr. Juan Compagnoni, Mr. Miguel Angel Tevar and Mr. David Guzmán. Some veteran residents may collaborate with the Trustees on certain matters.

COUNCIL OF DELEGATES

The Trustees periodically summon the Council of Delegates, a team formed by a delegate from each building and the Trustee team. The Council meets to deal with subjects related the ongoing academic year, and it especially aims to encourage moments of cooperation to promote community living.

LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

The role of the Delegate is paramount to enhancing the day-to-day of the Residence in its entirety. At the beginning of the year, residents choose their representative.

The Delegates tasks:

- ✓ To serve as a liaison between residents and those in responsibility.
- ✓ To collaborate with the Trustees in achieving the agreed objectives
- ✓ To collect observations, initiatives, and complaints respectfully and at the appropriate time.
- ✓ To give feed-back to the other residents of their building.

COMMISSIONS

To facilitate learning and cultural activities at the Residence, different commissions may be set up by residents, at the beginning of the school year. These commissions will collaborate with the activities proposed by the Trustees. The commissions may submit their own proposals, provided that, they are in keeping with the collective interest.

RESIDENT'S RIGHTS

- To join the activities that take place in the Residence and submit their proposals.
- To be treated with dignity and respect.
- To privacy.
- To enter and exit the center, following the current regulations of the Residence.
- To use the services offered by the Residence.
- Occupy and use your room, rest and study. However, in case of urgent need or to guarantee your property, common security or coexistence, authorized personnel may access any room, in addition to the usual entrances for maintenance and cleaning personnel. If there is evidence that a rule is seriously breached in a room, those responsible may enter the room.
- To participate in the election of their delegate.
- To submit suggestions or complaints and receive a response.

LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

DUTIES OF THE RESIDENT

- To comply with and respect the rules of the Residence.
- To meet the demands of academic life.
- To submit the required registration documentation within the indicated deadlines.
- To attend the course presentation meeting.
- To respect all residents, staff or anyone who is in La Salle Bonanova.
- To stay up to date with the communiques issued by the Residence via e-mail, mobile phone, dining room screen, user section of the Residence website.
- To notify any absence that involves spending the night outside the Residence.
- To respect the furniture and keep their room clean and tidy.

LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

LIFE IN THE RESIDENCE

YOUR ROOM

It is the personal space of each resident. It is also a place of rest and study.

To preserve and maintain the good condition of the room, papers or posters can only be hung on the noticeboard provided. For reasons of safety, and out of respect for the aesthetics of the buildings, the exteriors of the windows are not spaces to place personal objects (towels, slippers, bottles, etc.).

In the room you cannot cook. You are not allowed to use certain electrical appliances such as your own televisions, stoves, microwaves, vacuum cleaners, heaters, or fans. It is also forbidden to tamper with energy control systems (thermostats).

The furniture is fitted according to the dimensions of the room, and thus, must not be changed.

You can request the use of designated rooms to play musical instruments and avoid doing so in your own room.

In emergency situations authorized personnel of the Residence can enter the rooms.

On the arrival day at the Residence, family members can escort the residents to their room. However, during the year, families and friends cannot enter its facilities without authorization.

Pets, weapons, alcohol, and narcotics are strictly prohibited in the Residence.

All residents must spend the night in their room. No other person is allowed to occupy or spend time in someone else's room. Failure to comply with this rule is considered serious misconduct.

The room must be kept tidy, and cleaning staff must be allowed in, on the corresponding day (see page 19).

LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

Complementary services:

- Fridge: this service can be requested at any time. If you have your own fridge, you must inform the Trustees.
- TV: Some rooms have a TV. You can request to have it connected.
- Bed and bath linen: you can request the linen service, which is changed weekly.

SMOKING

Smoking in La Salle Bonanova is prohibited by Law 26.687 art. 23c. Smoking anywhere on the grounds of La Salle Bonanova is considered a serious breach of the school regulations.

VISITS

Visits from relatives, former Residents, friends, and colleagues will be received in the Visiting Room of the School (next to Reception).

The facilities of the Residence are exclusive to residents. It is the responsibility of the Resident that this rule is complied with.

LIVING ROOM

It is the perfect meeting place for Residents.

Residents must vacate this Room from 23.30h. to 8:00h. At the time of leaving, make sure that the Living Room is clean and tidy. Remember to turn off the light, TV and air conditioning.

SILENCE AND WORK AREAS

A serene environment facilitates individual learning. Therefore, all residents must be aware of the obligation they have to respect the study and rest time of their colleagues. Noises, whistles, shouting and utterances that may disturb others should be avoided. The facilities of the Residence are spaces which must be conducive to study and rest.

At 23.30h all residents must be in their Pavilion, and noise must be avoided in the courtyards or common areas.

In building 3 Montserrat there is a study room, available from 8:00h. to 23:30h. for all residents. After 23:30h. the room should be left empty. The residents who need to continue studying can go to the library.

LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

The library is on the second floor of the main building. It can be used from 6 p.m. on school days. Availability is subject to other activities that may be scheduled by the center.

To respect school timetables, residents should avoid going through the first and second floors of the central building during the following times (8:00h. to 18:00h.).

DRESS CODE

Throughout La Salle Bonanova and throughout the whole year, it is necessary to dress in accordance with the Character of the Center. Outside and on the grounds of the Residence, it is necessary to dress modestly and to take care of one's image and personal hygiene.

The dining rooms must be accessed appropriately dressed. Slippers, flip-flops, caps, or sports shorts are considered to be unsuitable attire for this area. Girls should avoid wearing skirts that are too short while boys should avoid tank tops. Showing underwear should be avoided.

In order to respect each other's beliefs, the display of ideological, political or similar symbols will be avoided in public. The resident should avoid quirky hairstyles and body piercings.

MEDICAL SERVICE

Near the Residence, there is the public health center Centre (CAP) Pedraforca on Avenguida Vallcarca, 169-205 (phone number 932 594 422 – 932 594 411), open from 8:00h. to 21:00h. from Monday to Friday.

IT IS IMPORTANT TO REGISTER AT THIS HEALTH CENTRE BEFORE AN EMERGENCY OR THE NEED ARISES. The Centre will assign you to a doctor for the duration of your stay in Barcelona.

The nearest Primary Care Emergency Centre is Horta - Guinardó (C / Sant Gaudenci, 21). Attention to the public is 24/7. Phone contact: 934 289 517.

It's necessary that each resident has their own Social Security card. The Residence cannot supply any medicine without prior authorization from a doctor. Additionally, it is recommended that each resident has their own personal first aid kit which should contain basic items, such as a thermometer.

LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

In serious cases of illness, the Residence will notify the Emergency Service (061) or facilitate the transfer of the patient, as quickly as possible, to one of the nearest health complexes (hospitals: Vall d'Hebrón, La Esperança, Plató ...). In these cases, families will be notified.

It is convenient that all health problems are reported to the Trustees' Team. The La Salle Bonanova complex has a nurse on duty from 8:30h. to 18:00h. Monday to Friday.

Every resident is required to report any close contact with a case of Covid-19, or present symptoms of any infectious disease.

ABSENCES

Current regulations require that public facilities know, at all times, how many people are in occupancy. For this reason, if residents do not spend the night in the Residence, they must notify the Trustees by email (info@residenciasalle.com) or Whatsapp (607085459).

NIGHTS OUT

Sant Joan de La Salle 33 entrance: Closed from 24h to 7:00h. (closed also from 13:00h to 15:00h).

Passeig de la Bonanova, 8 entrance:

Closed from 6:00h to 7:00h.

Check-in always before 6:00h.

The latest return time at night is 24:00h.

In case of any difficulty, call: 607085459.

Every resident must avoid making excessive noise when leaving and returning to and from the rooms to the street.

If Residents have unexpected plans to spend the night outside the Residence, they must notify the residence staff, at the on-call number 607 085 459.

LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

WEEKENDS

BOARD FROM MONDAY TO SUNDAY

Before 19:00h. on Thursday, residents on full board accommodation that do not spend a weekend in the Residence, must notify the trustees personally, by email or WhatsApp.

To maintain the good functioning of the dining room, it is important to notify all absences.

BOARD FROM MONDAY TO FRIDAY

In exceptional circumstances, Monday to Friday residents who, for academic purposes, want to stay the weekend, must request it before 7:00h. on Thursday, and justify the reason to the residence staff.

The price for the weekend stay is 90,60 € (and includes: two nights, Friday's dinner, breakfast, lunch and dinner on Saturday and Sunday). Not using the dining room does not mean a reduction in the rate.

Non-weekend residents who want to have dinner from Friday to Sunday must also be listed before Thursday. The price for dinner is €9. Saturday breakfast can also be booked at the cost of €3,50.

FRIDAY NIGHTS

Residents who are not staying for the weekend must leave the Residence before 21h on Friday.

For academic reasons, residents can stay in the Residence on Friday night, but they must inform someone in charge. In addition, it must be noted on the weekend list, whether they have dinner or not.

Staying in the Residence on Friday night must be authorized by a person in charge of the Residence. They must leave the Residence, on Saturday, before 10 a.m.

SUNDAYS ARRIVALS

Residents who return on Sunday (or Monday or Tuesday bank holiday), must arrive between 16.30h. and 24:00h.

LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

RESIDENCE CALENDAR

The renewal process will begin on May 4nd. To secure a place, the required documentation will have to be delivered between May 4nd and, May 11th at 5pm, 2025.

The Management and the Trustees will assess academic performance, the tolerant spirit of community living and collaboration demonstrated during the course. A copy of the academic grades for the 2025/2026 academic year may be requested.

The Trustees will respond to all requests before June 2nd, 2026.

LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

Room allocation

The following criteria shall be taken into account:

- Seniority as a resident.
- That the process of reapplication for the year ahead has been completed in time.
- Participation in the activities of the Residence and respect for the regulations.
- Personal preferences.

At the beginning of July, veteran residents can check by email the room assigned for the following course. New residents will be notified about their room allocation on the day of arrival.

GENERAL RULES

- You must keep the rooms as it was given to you.
- If it is clearly evident that a resident does not comply with their academic obligations, the cancellation of their place may be processed.
- Out of respect for the feelings and beliefs that are nurtured by the Residence, neither the introduction nor the use of pornographic material is allowed.
- For the benefit of the collective, community living and the general interests of the same Residence, the Trustees can change a resident to another room or building during the academic year.
- Inside the buildings, excessive noise, shouting and whistling must be avoided.
- Damage caused by the misuse of the facilities and the consequent repair-work undertaken will be paid for by the resident. If it is not known who the person responsible for it is, then the damages will be noted as common expenses. These expenses will be charged to all residents on the July invoice.
- The key and cards that are handed over on the day of entry and that will be returned at the end of the course are non-transferable and cannot be tampered with. In case of losing them, you must notify someone in responsibility as soon as possible. Card losses and breakages will be charged to the resident's account.
- No one outside the Residence can be brought into the room or any other part of the building.

LIVING TOGETHER IN THE RESIDENCE

- The Management Team will not tolerate any action that threatens the physical and/ or mental integrity of anyone in RLSB.
- The RLSB is not responsible for the actions of Residents outside the scope of La Salle Bonanova, nor for the consequences that these acts may cause. Within the scope of La Salle Bonanova, the Residence will respond in as far as is possible, although the resident is directly responsible for their actions.
- The RLSB is not responsible for lost and found possessions. However, it is advisable to make it known to the Trustees, so they can take appropriate action.
- The RLSB is not responsible for any damage caused to an electrical appliance due to an anomaly of the electrical network.
- Residents cannot use la Salle Bonanova or the La Salle Sports Centre car parks.

In order to generate an affable relationship between all, it is advisable to consult with those in responsibility before acting on their own initiative in aspects that may not be addressed in this document.

NON-COMPLIANCE WITH REGULATIONS

On the occasion that a resident repeats a minor misdemeanor or commits a serious one, they will be dealt with by the person in charge of the Trustees' team, the person in charge who detected the misdemeanor and the resident in question. Subsequently, it will be assessed if it requires sanction, which can range from a written warning, a change of room, temporary suspension, or definitive expulsion. Any sanction will have the approval of the school management and parents, or legal guardians of the resident will be notified

The resident undertakes to respect the rules of the Residence, and by extension, the rules of La Salle Bonanova. Any breach may be considered a misdemeanor.
